PAPIER MACHE AND CARTON PIERRE ENRICHMENTS MANUFACTORY
49 & 50, RATHBONE-PLACE.

GEORGE JACKSON and SONS beg the attention of Architects, Builders, Decorators, and others, to their large assortment of ENRICHMENTS in every style, executed in the highest class of art.—Enrichments for ceilings of every period, elaborate or simple, Gothic, Elizabethan, pendentive or flat, Louis XIV., in much variety, and to any degree of cost: Italian and Greek, Renaissance, and many modified characters, executed for the first houses, and from designs of architects of the highest eminence; wall dressings, rich panels of every period, rich Elizabethan and Gothic Bodies in many designs. Door-caps, mouldings, and dressings.

A large assortment of Gothic Bosses to many varied intersections of all sizes, tracery and panel headings for church works, organ dressings, of most periods, and faithfully executed to the traits of each.

The general decorations of Drawing and Dining Rooms, Libraries, &c., of very considerable extent, as furniture, glass frames, tables, window cornices, screens, candelabra, and the whole range of accompaniments to Reception Rooms of the first class, as well as more subdued.

The facilities and repeated enlargement of means enable GEORGE JACKSON and SONS to announce the execution of works of the above descriptions in these advantageous materials at a cost considerably below any known method, while for quality, relief, and finish, they flatter themselves they stand unrivalled.
